Rat Campaign in City Destroyed Large Numbers

Thousands of rats were killed in Hamlin last week in the two-day campaign against the rodents, it was reported when the drive ended Thursday.

The rats were taken out of the city in large boxes and destroyed at the city dump grounds.

The campaign was directed by R. E. Wilson of the Wildlife Survey, who was assisted by workers hired by the City of Hamlin.

Poison used against the rodents was 1080, and 8 pounds of poison bait was put out. The campaign was made in 93 premises in Hamlin, Wilson said and more than 1,300 baits were exposed.

"Hamlin is not infested with as many rats as the average town of its size," Wilson said. However, he added, there are far too many mice here.

The campaign is being waged by the federal agency in an effort to cut down the enormous economic loss occasioned by rats each year in the country. In addition to the economic loss rats carry several types of disease, it was pointed out.

Y-6 Cattle Win Honors In Fisher County Fair

With five head of cattle entered in the Fisher County Fair at Roby last week, Mrs. Fay Young Morton, owner of the Y-6 Ranch north of Hamlin, brought home four first place ribbons, one second, a grand championship and a reserve championship.

Mrs. Morton's H. G. Royal Mixer 954 was awarded the grand championship for hereford bulls. Mrs. Morton's stock has taken this honor for three successive years.

A 10-month-old heifer, Belle Given 3rd, was selected as reserve champion heifer in the show.

Jay said a meeting will be called early next week of fathers with boys of scouting age, to form an organization to be known as the Dads' Club. Purpose of the organization will be to sponsor a scouting program in Hamlin.

Conway Blows in For Good Show

Oil Thown More Than 100 Feet High As Well Comes in on Own Power Tuesday

Excitement ran high in the Hamlin oil area Tuesday night and Wednesday as the Conway No. 2 on the Poe farm blew in for a heavy showing of oil, coming in on its own power.

The well spouted oil more than 100 feet on the derrick and flowed until it had cleaned itself out when operators shut it in. No estimate of its production has been made, pending official gauge by the Texas Railroad Commission.

The well was drilled to 4530-60 feet into the Palo Pinto reef.

Other activity in Hamlin's field included:

General Crude Oil Company moved in two rigs this week for wells west of Hamlin. One will be located on the northwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 212 BBB&C survey, on the Flores land. This well was spudded in Wednesday and drilling is getting underway this week.

In addition General Crude erected a rig this week in the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of section 212 on the C. C. Lopez land. And the same company staked another location on the Lopez land in section 89.

The Dr. W. H. Bryant, drilling on the Swenson tract, was at 4620 feet Tuesday night and expected to pick

Free Family Party Set For Next Tuesday Nite

Featuring acts of magic, musical numbers, tap dancing and acrobatics, the Jay Implement Company is sponsoring the appearance in Hamlin of the Family Party show next Tuesday evening, November 2, Eddie Jay, owner, said this week.

The show will be presented in the high school auditorium at 7:30, and admission is free, Jay said.

Included in the cast of persons who will appear on stage are Eunice (Wally Sands, Billy Beckett, Willie Mullin, Louise Terry and Ross Harvey.

In addition to the stage show a colored movie will also be shown. The public is invited to attend.

LENTY OF SOAP—UT NO SABOTAGE

Hamlin youngsters used plenty of soap in celebration of Hallowe'en, but little sabotage was reported in the community as result of youthful pranks.

Few windows in the business district escaped the scrawling messages scribbled in soap, and most automobiles left parked on the downtown streets also were victims of the youthful yep to scrawl.

No damage to property was reported.

Mighty Mice Get Rest Last Week; Play Anson Here

After a rest of a week, occasioned by bad weather, which caused the cancellation of last week's game, the Hamlin Mighty Mice prepared for their final game of the season at Piper Stadium Thursday night.

The Mice were scheduled to meet the Anson junior club on the home field, the second clash between the two teams.

Coach Johnny Howell, who has piloted the Mighty Mice to a successful season, said the team has plenty of confidence, but is not overconfident.

The Mice won from Anson in the first game with the county seat eleven.

The locals have lost only one game this season, and been tied once. Both times they played against the Stamford club.

Poppy Sale Is Set for Wednesday, Nov. 10

Annual sale of poppies by the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in Hamlin Wednesday, November 10, it was announced this week by Mrs. Gilbert Bowman, committee chairman.

Proceeds from the sale will go to disabled veterans of both world wars, Mrs. Bowman said. The paper flowers are made by the veterans during the year and distributed to auxiliaries to sell.

For many of the veterans, Mrs. Bowman said, the income from poppy sales is the only cash income they have because of disabilities.

Songfest Scheduled In Calvary Church

An old-fashioned singing will be conducted in the Calvary Baptist Church in Hamlin Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, it was announced this week.

The public is invited to attend. Several quartets and other groups of singers are expected to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Mary Arrington is in the Stamford Sanitarium where she is recuperating from a major operation. She is the mother of Mrs. Ray Huling of Hamlin and of Mrs. C. J. Matheson of Amarillo.

Pipers Dedicate Game to Fathers

Locals Won First Conference Game in Two Years; Play Colorado City Here

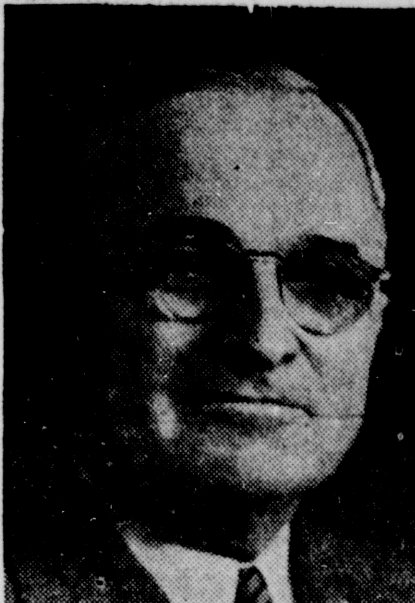

Hamlin's Pied Pipers emerged from a two year losing streak in the 6-A conference last Friday to trounce the Snyder Tigers on the losers' home field 14 to 6.

The Pipers outplayed the loop-trailing Tigers throughout the game. The Hamlin team will meet the Colorado City club on the Piper field Friday night for another conference contest.

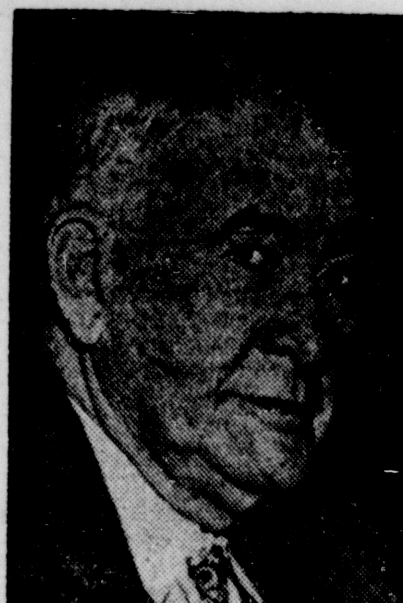

Colorado City is second in conference standing with two games won and one game lost. Only mighty Rotan leads the Wolves in percentage points in the west half of the conference.

Coach Jesse Burditt in commenting on the coming game, told the Herald this week that his boys are in excellent condition for the game and are going to fight it out. However, he added, the average weight of the Colorado City team is much more than of any team we have met this season, and they have played impressive ball.

The Hamlin Pipers had climbed to third place in the conference with a percentage of 500 with one game won, one lost and one tied.

Garrett Will Give Memorial Talk

All Ex-Service Men and Women Are Invited to Participate in Parade

County Judge Roger Garrett of Anson will make the memorial address in observance of Armistice Day in Hamlin, Thursday, November 11, it was announced this week by Clyde Huff, chairman of the VFW committee in charge of arrangements.

Garrett will speak from a platform in front of the Hamlin Post Office at 11:00 a. m. as a climax to a program which includes a steeple parade.

The parade will form at 6th Street and Central at 10:45 and march south to the railroad tracks. There it will turn and march back to the site of the program.

The parade will be led by a color guard and members of the Hamlin Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. Immediately following will be former members of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

All former service men and women in this area are invited to attend and participate in the parade and other activities of the day, Huff said. They are requested to come dressed in their uniforms if possible.

Veterans also are invited to be guests of the local veterans organizations at a free barbecue following the program. The barbecue will be held at the City Park. Those who plan to attend are requested to notify either Huff or Joe Culbertson, commander of the American Legion, to give the local organizations an opportunity to know how many to prepare for.

All business houses in Hamlin have been asked to close their doors for the entire day to afford employees an opportunity to attend the memorial services and other events planned for the day.

A football game Thursday afternoon will end the day's activities. The game will be between the Hamlin Pied Pipers and Rotan.

Dr. Edmund Haag Takes New Course

Dr. Edmund Haag of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital will leave November 8 for Galveston, where he will take a post graduate course in diagnosis and treatment of infants and children. The course will be taught in the University School of Medicine at Galveston.

During the absence of Dr. Haag, his patients will be treated by Dr. J. F. Hocott.

Mrs. Haag and their young son will accompany Haag.

Hospital Audit Not Completed Tuesday

Audit of the books and accounts of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, which had been scheduled for completion Tuesday, November 2, had not been completed by Wednesday of this week, J. E. Patterson, business manager, said.

Reason for the delay, Patterson said, was because of the slowness of verification of accounts. The report is expected to be ready for publication next week.

ATTEND FUNERAL.

Mrs. P. A. Fowler and son, Paul Jr., attended funeral services in Abilene last Thursday afternoon for Wade Meadows, cousin of Mrs. Fowler.

Lyndon Johnson Wins by Heevey Vote As Republicans Are Overwhelmed

Upsetting political experts and poll takers throughout the United States, more than 47 million voters went to the polls Tuesday to return Harry S. Truman to the White House for another four years, and to give him what he had asked—a Democratic congress.

The upset came as one of the major surprises of the past century in elections, and found both Democrats and Republicans in all parts of the nation unprepared for the startling development.

Truman and Alben Barkley received in excess of 22 million votes, while Governor Thomas E. Dewey and his running mate, Governor Earl Warren of California, trailed with slightly more than 20 million. Political polls had estimated the election outcome as a landslide victory for the Republicans.

In Texas Lyndon Johnson, hard-bitten Democratic candidate for United States senator, outdistanced his Republican rival with ease and emerged as more than a three to one winner over Jack Porter, Houston businessman.

Johnson, winner of the Democratic runoff primary August 28 by a mere 87 votes over Coke Stevenson, former governor, had been assailed as holder of a fraudulent title to the nomination. The battle against him had grown so bitter that Johnson and political friends made an intensive last week fight to defend his right to his place on the ticket.

In the national election Truman took the lead early in the voting and held it almost throughout the night of Tuesday as reports trickled in from outlying districts.

Dewey's camp issued several statements during the night expressing optimism and claiming that the tide would turn when rural areas were heard from. The change in tide never came.

Shortly after 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning the Republican candidate sent a telegram to Truman offering congratulations, and calling upon the people of the United States to unite behind the leadership of Truman during the next four years.

Truman, who had spent the night in Kansas City, appeared jubilant, but according to press reports, seemed to have lost some of the cocky

air he carried during the campaign. He commented that "Now that I have a congress who will work with me, I can get my program enacted."

In Hamlin the voting reached a near record as more than 615 people went to the polls. In the west box a total of 488 ballots were cast and in the east box 167 voters appeared.

Hamlin and Jones County went heavily Democratic with both Truman and Johnson far in the lead.

Mrs. Tims' Rites Held in Hamlin; Died in Abilene

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane Tims, 85, who died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Lawson in Abilene early Monday morning, were conducted at 3:00 p. m. Wednesday in the Hamlin Methodist Church.

Dr. Will C. House, pastor of the church, was in charge of the service, and burial was in the East Cemetery, directed by the Barrow Funeral Home.

Born in Tennessee, Mrs. Tims had come to Hamlin more than 30 years ago to make her home. For the past three years she had been living in Abilene with her daughter.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Lawson, are four other daughters, Mrs. Berline Taylor, Sacramento, California, Mrs. Julia Chambers, El Monte, California, Mrs. Anne Bushwood, Claremont, California, and Mrs. Lula Wright of McAlester, Oklahoma; and one son, D. A. Tims of San Angelo.

AIDS IN REVIVAL.

Rev. W. E. Nunn, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Hamlin, left for Johnston this week, where he will aid in a revival meeting. Mrs. Nunn accompanied him.

WE'LL TAKE HOLIDAY

All copy—both news and advertising—for The Hamlin Herald for next week must be in the office not later than 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 9, to insure its publication.

Reason for the temporary change in deadline is that Thursday, November 11 is a holiday and The Herald wants to afford its employees a day off.

The earlier deadline applies to all copy, including classified ads, and will be effective only for the next week.

New Water Storage Tank to Be Erected

Erection of a new water storage tank in Hamlin was announced this week by Holly Toler, mayor. The tank will be placed at Jackson and Second Street. Cost of the project will be $35,210.

The new tank will have a capacity of 200,000 gallons, Toler said. The present water storage capacity is 100,000 gallons and the new facilities will be in compliance with regulations of fire insurance companies, to give Hamlin a total storage of 300,000 gallons.

The tank will be 128 feet high, and is expected to be put into place within the next seven months. It is now under construction by the Pittsburg Des Moines Steel Corporation.

$326 Is Raised Here For Scouting Program

A total of $326 was contributed by Hamlin people for the Boy Scout finance drive conducted here recently according to Joe Culbertson, chairman of the campaign.

The money will be used for the support of the scouting program throughout the Chisholm Trail Council, and part of the funds raised will go to national scout work.

New Visiting Hours Are Set in Hospital

Announcement of new hours for visiting patients in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital was made this week by J. E. Patterson, business manager of the institution.

New hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 11:00 a. m.; from 3:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. and from 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. The public is asked to cooperate.

IN STAMFORD HOSPITAL.

Mrs. J. A. Neagle was taken to the Stamford Sanitarium last week for medical treatment. Her condition was reported to be improving this week.

All Things In Common

George Bernard Shaw, the incomparable Irish playwright, may be master at his own trade, but when he undertakes to interpret the Scriptures and use the Word of God to bolster his support of Communism he flounders far beyond the depths of his spiritual insight and his mental capabilities.

Shaw only this week quoted from the Bible to support his assertion that Communism and Christianity have a unity of purpose. He cited the passage which tells that the disciples, immediately after the ascension of Jesus, "had all things in common."

This, he asserted, is the basic precept of Communism.

There can be no comparison of the bloody despotism exemplified in Stalinist Russia with the non-violent upsurge of Christianity. Stalin preaches a Godless creed, while Christianity teaches the love of a merciful Heavenly Father. Stalin denounces private property rights as capitalistic, while Christianity defends the right of the individual to possess whatever he can earn.

Stalin is the advocate of the blood purge to purify his party while Jesus refused the offer of physical force even when faced with the terrifying spectre of the cross.

It is true that the disciples practiced the theory of community ownership of life's necessities, but they did it for the purpose of removing material worries from the minds of the evangelists of the new ideology. Their idea was to strengthen the hands of those who would devote all their time to propagation of the gospel. And too, they were bound together by spiritual unity and not by political tyranny.

There are many sects today who practice in modified form the same economic plan adopted by the early disciples, but the only compulsion they use is a spiritual compulsion. None of them ever dream of physical violence to perpetuate their tenets.

The truth, which is too profound to be grasped by the shallow thinking of Shaw and other proponents of Communism, is that Stalin has stolen a spiritual principle and sought to make of it a foundation for a political creed.

There never was and never can be any similarity between Communism and Christianity. They are forces in different realms and their purposes can never be identical.

In the mental collisions of mortals and the strain of intellectual wrestlings, moral tension is tested, and, if it yields not, grows stronger.—Mary Baker Eddy

And Now It's All Over

The climax has come and gone. Once more the people of the United States can settle back to the way of life they follow so industriously for three and one-half years out of each quadriennium. They can return to their reading of the sports news, keeping up with their favorite comics and growling about high prices. The show is over.

The election Tuesday put a stop to the slobbery voice of Wallace, pleading for a closer understanding of the humanitarian principles of "Good Old Joe"; to the sonorous tones of Dewey, urging unity and cooperation; and to the staccato rattle of Truman warning of the totalitarian trend of Republicanism.

The tumult and the shouting have died and the rousing of the rabble has ceased, and once more we can catch our breaths and remember that first of all we are Americans. We can have time again to reflect that before party loyalty comes national patriotism. Before selfish interest comes public good.

Passions that were aroused to such fever pitch by the claims and counter-claims, can drop back to normalcy and all of us can again unite in the one task remaining before us—the task of perpetuating and preserving our democracy.

While millions of people did not approve the administration that was selected Tuesday, they will accept the choice like all good Americans and each will do his best to play his part in whatever role fate and fortune have assigned him.

Regardless of whether you supported the winners Tuesday, or whether your choice was buried under a mountain of votes, it now is your privilege to join with all other Americans in presenting to the world a united democratic front against the encroachments of totalitarianism.

In spite of our wrangling and arguing, and in spite of the heated political battles that rage on every hand each four years, Americans are a united people. We are united in the common purpose to strengthen the sinews of our nation and to offer to downtrodden peoples in all lands a better way of life.

And now that the show is over let us forget both the bitterness of defeat and the joys of victory and, side by side, let us face the future, unafraid as long as there is unity in our purpose to safeguard liberty and to guarantee freedom to all within the borders of our nation.

To be worth anything, character must be capable of standing firm upon its feet in the world of daily work, temptation, and trial.—Smiles

Honored by all

In occupied countries the American soldier commands respect as he goes about his difficult but rewarding task of building a lasting peace.

Their responsibilities are heavy. The success of their mission will largely determine the future of world peace... the future security of every American.

This world-wide respect for the American uniform was won the hard way—in battle. Now, in peace, it is being maintained by the able, courageous young men of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

To carry out that mission, they need—and have—your respect. But more than that, they need—and deserve—your wholehearted support. Let us all resolve on this Armistice Day to keep America strong. Only in this manner can the peace of the world be strengthened.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS MADE TOUR OF COUNTY; HOMES VISITED

A group of Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs gathered at the courthouse in Anson at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 27 for a tour of the county.

The group went to Mrs. W. B. Warren's home to see the finished table that had been started at a leader training meeting given by Miss Loretta Allen, Home Demonstration Agent.

The next stop was at Mrs. M. E. Broth's. She is a member of the Blue Bonnet Club and all of the members had brought things they had made to her home for an exhibit. They pinned a tiny blue bonnet on everyone who registered. As Mrs. Carother's home is new, several club members got ideas for new homes they are planning and for remodeling their old homes.

The next stop was at Mrs. H. E. Brown's home. Mrs. Brown is a member of the Hamlin Club. This club has been organized only five months, but it had a very good exhibit. There were such things as pictures, pressing equipment, belts, dresses, chiffon cakes, rugs and bedspreads, leather billfolds and purses and outdoor living room furniture.

Mrs. Dave Walker of the Tuxedo Club was visited next. She has a new home. Plans have been made for the landscaping, and the work will begin soon. The Tuxedo Club also had an exhibit of its work.

Noon found everyone at the Pleasant Valley School house ready for lunch. Everyone took a sandwich but the Pleasant Valley Club furnished coffee and dessert for all. In one room was a display of all the things the club members had done. One very interesting display was a group of home-made toys.

Mrs. J. C. Williams of Avoca was the next hostess. Her club also had a display of its work. An unusual arrangement of marigolds attracted attention.

Mrs. H. Culwell of New Hope Club was visited next. Mrs. Culwell had made two closets for her home. The club members also had an exhibit of their work.

The next stop was at Mrs. Dewey Ramsey's of the Compere Club. Mrs. Ramsey's home is new also. One of the outstanding things about it is her ventilated pantry. The club members had a display of their work too.

Mrs. Henry Euckert of the Goodman Club was visited last. She has a new home. She has a pretty lawn, rose garden and shrubs around the house.

There were about 40 at each house. Some would drop off and others be added. There were 58 at noon.

The entry was one of 243 shown in the annual competition for the finest Jerseys owned by 4-H and FFA members 12 to 21 years of age. Grand Champion animal of the show was a four-year old Jersey cow owned and exhibited by Peggy Sample of Rutherford, Tennessee. The 14-year-old girl has been a 4-H member for four years and plans to bring her winner back to the 1949 All-American to be held in Memphis, Tennessee.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

A sweetheart for a winter start!

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right...

He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade Conoco Nth Motor Oil. For two reasons:

First, because winter-grade Nth is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter... freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery... and on your nerves... because it gives you faster starts.

And second, Nth oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts... saves wear on engine parts... because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight!

So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning...

Rat Campaign in City Destroyed Large Numbers

Thousands of rats were killed in Hamlin last week in the two-day campaign against the rodents, it was reported when the drive ended Thursday.

The rats were taken out of the city in large boxes and destroyed at the city dump grounds.

The campaign was directed by R. E. Wilson of the Wildlife Survey, who was assisted by workers hired by the City of Hamlin.

Poison used against the rodents was 1080, and 8 pounds of poison bait was put out. The campaign was made in 93 premises in Hamlin, Wilson said and more than 1,300 baits were exposed.

"Hamlin is not infested with as many rats as the average town of its size," Wilson said. However, he added, there are far too many mice here.

The campaign is being waged by the federal agency in an effort to cut down the enormous economic loss occasioned by rats each year in the country. In addition to the economic loss rats carry several types of disease, it was pointed out.

Y-6 Cattle Win Honors In Fisher County Fair

With five head of cattle entered in the Fisher County Fair at Roby last week, Mrs. Fay Young Morton, owner of the Y-6 Ranch north of Hamlin, brought home four first place ribbons, one second, a grand championship and a reserve championship.

Mrs. Morton's H. G. Royal Mixer 954 was awarded the grand championship for hereford bulls. Mrs. Morton's stock has taken this honor for three successive years.

A 10-month-old heifer, Belle Given 3rd, was selected as reserve champion heifer in the show.

Mighty Mice Get Rest Last Week; Play Anson Here

After a rest of a week, occasioned by bad weather, which caused the cancellation of last week's game, the Hamlin Mighty Mice prepared for their final game of the season at Piper Stadium Thursday night.

The Mice were scheduled to meet the Anson junior club on the home field, the second clash between the two teams.

Coach Johnny Howell, who has piloted the Mighty Mice to a successful season, said the team has plenty of confidence, but is not overconfident.

The Mice won from Anson in the first game with the county seat eleven.

The locals have lost only one game this season, and been tied once. Both times they played against the Stamford club.

Poppy Sale Is Set for Wednesday, Nov. 10

Annual sale of poppies by the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in Hamlin Wednesday, November 10, it was announced this week by Mrs. Gilbert Bowman, committee chairman.

Proceeds from the sale will go to disabled veterans of both world wars, Mrs. Bowman said. The paper flowers are made by the veterans during the year and distributed to auxiliaries to sell.

For many of the veterans, Mrs. Bowman said, the income from poppy sales is the only cash income they have because of disabilities.

Songfest Scheduled In Calvary Church

Pipers Dedicate Game to Fathers

Locals Won First Conference Game in Two Years; Play Colorado City Here

Hamlin's Pied Pipers emerged from a two year losing streak in the 6-A conference last Friday to trounce the Snyder Tigers on the losers' home field 14 to 6.

The Pipers outplayed the loopy-trailing Tigers throughout the game. The Hamlin team will meet the Colorado City club on the Piper field Friday night for another conference contest.

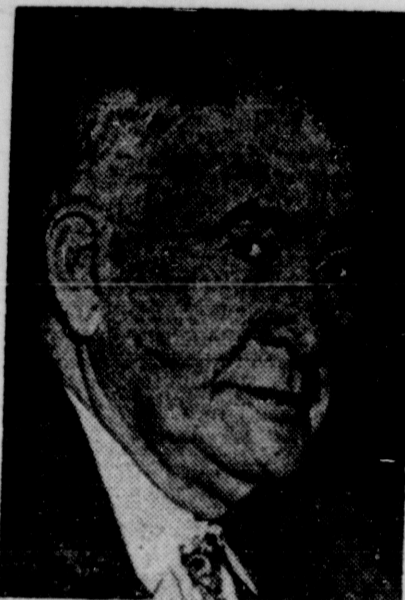

Colorado City is second in conference standing with two games won and one game lost. Only mighty Rotan leads the Wolves in percentage points in the west half of the conference.

Coach Jesse Burditt in commenting on the coming game, told the Herald this week that his boys are in excellent condition for the game and are going to fight it out. However, he added, the average weight of the Colorado City team is much more than of any team we have met this season, and they have played impressive ball.

The Hamlin Pipers had climbed to third place in the conference with a percentage of 500 with one game won, one lost and one tied.

Garrett Will Give Memorial Talk

All Ex-Service Men and Women Are Invited to Participate in Parade

County Judge Roger Garrett of Anson will make the memorial address in observance of Armistice Day in Hamlin, Thursday, November 11, it was announced this week by Clyde Huff, chairman of the VFW committee in charge of arrangements.

Garrett will speak from a platform in front of the Hamlin Post Office at 11:00 a. m. as a climax to a program which includes a steeple parade.

The parade will form at 6th Street and Central at 10:45 and march south to the railroad tracks. There it will turn and march back to the site of the program.

The parade will be led by a color guard and members of the Hamlin Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

Immediately following will be former members of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

All former service men and women in this area are invited to attend and participate in the parade and other activities of the day, Huff said. They are requested to come dressed in their uniforms if possible.

Veterans also are invited to be guests of the local veterans organizations at a free barbecue following the program. The barbecue will be held at the City Park. Those who plan to attend are requested to notify either Huff or Joe Culbertson, commander of the American Legion, to give the local organizations an opportunity to know how many to prepare for.

JUDGE ROGER GARRETT

All business houses in Hamlin have been asked to close their doors for the entire day to afford employees an opportunity to attend the memorial services and other events planned for the day.

A football game Thursday afternoon will end the day's activities. The game will be between the Hamlin Pied Pipers and Rotan.

Dr. Edmund Haag Takes New Course

Dr. Edmund Haag of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital will leave November 8 for Galveston, where he will take a post graduate course in diagnosis and treatment of infants and children. The course will be taught in the University School of Medicine at Galveston.

During the absence of Dr. Haag, his patients will be treated by Dr. J. F. Hocott.

Mrs. Haag and their young son will accompany Haag.

Hospital Audit Not Completed Tuesday

Audit of the books and accounts of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, which had been scheduled for completion Tuesday, November 2, had not been completed by Wednesday of this week, J. E. Patterson, business manager, said.

Reason for the delay, Patterson said, was because of the slowness of verification of accounts. The report is expected to be ready for publication next week.

Lyndon Johnson Wins by Heevy Vote As Republicans Are Overwhelmed

Upsetting political experts and poll takers throughout the United States, more than 47 million voters went to the polls Tuesday to return Harry S. Truman to the White House for another four years, and to give him what he had asked—a Democratic congress.

The upset came as one of the major surprises of the past century in elections, and found both Democrats and Republicans in all parts of the nation unprepared for the startling development.

Truman and Alben Barkley received in excess of 22 million votes, while Governor Thomas E. Dewey and his running mate, Governor Earl Warren of California, trailed with slightly more than 20 million. Political polls had estimated the election outcome as a landslide victory for the Republicans.

In Texas Lyndon Johnson, hardied Democratic candidate for United States senator, outdistanced his Republican rival with ease and emerged as more than a three to one winner over Jack Porter, Houston businessman.

Johnson, winner of the Democratic runoff primary August 28 by a mere 87 votes over Coke Stevenson, former governor, had been assailed as holder of a fraudulent title to the nomination. The battle against him had grown so bitter that Johnson and political friends made an intensive last week fight to defend his right to his place on the ticket.

In the national election Truman took the lead early in the voting and held it almost throughout the night of Tuesday as reports trickled in from outlying districts.

Dewey's camp issued several statements during the night expressing optimism and claiming that the tide would turn when rural areas were heard from. The change in tide never came.

Shortly after 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning the Republican candidate sent a telegram to Truman offering congratulations, and calling upon the people of the United States to unite behind the leadership of Truman during the next four years.

Truman, who had spent the night in Kansas City, appeared jubilant, but according to press reports, seemed to have lost some of the cocky

air he carried during the campaign. He commented that "Now that I have a congress who will work with me, I can get my program enacted."

In Hamlin the voting reached a near record as more than 615 people went to the polls. In the west box a total of 488 ballots were cast and in the east box 167 voters appeared.

Hamlin and Jones County went heavily Democratic with both Truman and Johnson far in the lead.

Mrs. Tims' Rites Held in Hamlin; Died in Abilene

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane Tims, 85, who died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Lawson in Abilene early Monday morning, were conducted at 3:00 p. m. Wednesday in the Hamlin Methodist Church.

Dr. Will C. House, pastor of the church, was in charge of the service, and burial was in the East Cemetery, directed by the Barrow Funeral Home.

Born in Tennessee, Mrs. Tims had come to Hamlin more than 30 years ago to make her home. For the past three years she had been living in Abilene with her daughter.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Lawson, are four other daughters, Mrs. Berline Taylor, Sacramento, California; Mrs. Julia Chambers, El Monte, California; Mrs. Anne Bushwood, Claremont, California; and Mrs. Lula Wright of McAlester, Oklahoma; and one son, D. A. Tims of San Angelo.

AIDS IN REVIVAL

Rev. W. E. Nunn, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Hamlin, left for Johnstown this week, where he will aid in a revival meeting. Mrs. Nunn accompanied him.

WE'LL TAKE HOLIDAY

All copy—both news and advertising—for The Hamlin Herald for next week must be in the office not later than 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, November 9, to insure its publication.

Reason for the temporary change in deadline is that Thursday, November 11 is a holiday and The Herald wants to afford its employees a day off.

The earlier deadline applies to all copy, including classified ads, and will be effective only for the next week.

Conway Blows in For Good Show

Oil Thown More Than 100 Feet High As Well Comes in on Own Power Tuesday

Excitement ran high in the Hamlin oil area Tuesday night and Wednesday as the Conway No. 2 on the Poe farm blew in for a heavy showing of oil, coming in on its own power.

The well spouted oil more than 100 feet on the derrick and flowed until it had cleaned itself out when operators shut it in. No estimate of its production has been made, pending official gauge by the Texas Railroad Commission.

The well was drilled to 4530-60 feet into the Palo Pinto reef.

Other activity in Hamlin's field included:

General Crude Oil Company moved in two rigs this week for wells west of Hamlin. One will be located on the northwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 212 BB&C survey, on the Flores land. This well was spudded in Wednesday and drilling is getting underway this week.

In addition General Crude erected a rig this week in the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of section 212 on the C. C. Lopez land. And the same company staked another location on the Lopez land in section 89.

The Dr. W. H. Bryant, drilling on the Swenson tract, was at 4620 feet Tuesday night and expected to pick up production at around 4800 feet this week-end.

The Phillips Petroleum Company on the J. B. Terrell land was testing the upper formations Tuesday after drilling slightly below 4000 feet.

S. B. Roberts and associates filed intention to drill on the C. R. Crowley land, about eight miles southwest of Hamlin. A rig was being moved in this week and the drilling is expected to get underway early next week.

Rotan Students Give Lions Club Program

Bob Morris, Lions Club zone chairman of Rotan, presented a group of Rotan High School students in several musical numbers at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club.

Included in the program were singing and guitar playing. Six students participated in the program.

Luther Haight Jr., and Jesse Burditt were inducted as new members of the club at the meeting.

Junior Class Play Is Slated for Dec. 19

Assignment of roles in the annual Hamlin Junior Class play has been completed and rehearsals will get underway this week. Date for presentation of the show has been set for December 19.

Directed by Miss Billie K. Lancaster, the play "Ever Since Eve," is a three-act comedy.

Baptist Youths Stage Hallowe'en Hay Ride

Members of the Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church entertained their boy friends with a Hallowe'en party and hay ride last Saturday night.

The wagon left Hamlin at 6:30 and went to the City Lake, with a stop for a picnic supper at the bank cabin.

Following the picnic lunch a bubble gum blowing contest was conducted, with Tommy Latham winning first place and Jim Harwell second for boys. In the girls' contest Susanne Hudson took first and Dorothy Altum second award.

Approximately 60 persons were in attendance at the party and hay ride, including three Hardin-Simmons University students. Mrs. Joy Walton sponsored the party.

Free Family Party Set For Next Tuesday Nite

Featuring acts of magic, musical numbers, tap dancing and acrobatics, the Jay Implement Company is sponsoring the appearance in Hamlin of the Family Party show next Tuesday evening, November 2. Eddie Jay, owner, said this week.

The show will be presented in the high school auditorium at 7:30, and admission is free, Jay said.

Included in the cast of performers who will appear on stage are Eunice Lake, Wally Sands, Billy Beckett, Millie Mullin, Louise Terry and Ross Harvey.

In addition to the stage show a colored movie will also be shown. The public is invited to attend.

PLENTY OF SOAP—BUT NO SABOTAGE

Hamlin youngsters used plenty of soap in celebration of Hallowe'en, but little sabotage was reported in the community as a result of youthful pranks.

Few windows in the business escaped the scrawling messages inscribed in soap, and most automobiles left parked on the downtown streets also were victims of the youthful yep to record.

No damage to property was reported.

All Things In Common

George Bernard Shaw, the incomparable Irish playwright, may be master at his own trade, but when he undertakes to interpret the Scriptures and use the Word of God to bolster his support of Communism he flounders far beyond the depths of his spiritual insight and his mental capabilities.

Shaw only this week quoted from the Bible to support his assertion that Communism and Christianity have a unity of purpose. He cited the passage which tells that the disciples, immediately after the ascension of Jesus, "had all things in common."

This, he asserted, is the basic precept of Communism.

There can be no comparison of the bloody despotism exemplified in Stalinist Russia with the non-violent upsurge of Christianity. Stalin preaches a Godless creed, while Christianity teaches the love of a merciful Heavenly Father. Stalin denounces private property rights as capitalistic, while Christianity defends the right of the individual to possess whatever he can earn.

Stalin is the advocate of the blood purge to purify his party while Jesus refused the offer of physical force even when faced with the terrifying spectre of the cross.

It is true that the disciples practiced the theory of community ownership of life's necessities, but they did it for the purpose of removing material worries from the minds of the evangelists of the new ideology. Their idea was to strengthen the hands of those who would devote all their time to propagation of the gospel. And too, they were bound together by spiritual unity and not by political tyranny.

There are many sects today who practice in modified form the same economic plan adopted by the early disciples, but the only compulsion they use is a spiritual compulsion. None of them ever dream of physical violence to perpetuate their tenets.

The truth, which is too profound to be grasped by the shallow thinking of Shaw and other proponents of Communism, is that Stalin has stolen a spiritual principle and sought to make of it a foundation for a political creed.

There never was and never can be any similarity between Communism and Christianity. They are forces in different realms and their purposes can never be identical.

In the mental collisions of mortals and the strain of intellectual wrappings, moral tension is tested, and, if it yields not, grows stronger.—Mary Baker Eddy

And Now It's All Over

The climax has come and gone. Once more the people of the United States can settle back to the way of life they follow so industriously for three and one-half years out of each quadriennium. They can return to their reading of the sports news, keeping up with their favorite comics and growling about high prices. The show is over.

The election Tuesday put a stop to the slobbery voice of Wallace, pleading for a closer understanding of the humanitarian principles of "Good Old Joe"; to the sonorous tones of Dewey, urging unity and cooperation; and to the staccato rattle of Truman warning of the totalitarian trend of Republicanism.

The tumult and the shouting have died and the rousing of the rabble has ceased, and once more we can catch our breaths and remember that first of all we are Americans. We can have time again to reflect that before party loyalty comes national patriotism. Before selfish interest comes public good.

Passions that were aroused to such fever pitch by the claims and counter-claims, can drop back to normalcy and all of us can again unite in the one task remaining before us—the task of perpetuating and preserving our democracy.

While millions of people did not approve the administration that was selected Tuesday, they will accept the choice like all good Americans and each will do his best to play his part in whatever role fate and fortune have assigned him.

Regardless of whether you supported the winners Tuesday, or whether your choice was buried under a mountain of votes, it now is your privilege to join with all other Americans in presenting to the world a united democratic front against the encroachments of totalitarianism.

In spite of our wrangling and arguing, and in spite of the heated political battles that rage on every hand each four years, Americans are a united people. We are united in the common purpose to strengthen the sinews of our nation and to offer to downtrodden peoples in all lands a better way of life.

And now that the show is over let us forget both the bitterness of defeat and the joys of victory and, side by side, let us face the future, unafraid as long as there is unity in our purpose to safeguard liberty and to guarantee freedom to all within the borders of our nation.

To be worth anything, character must be capable of standing firm upon its feet in the world of daily work, temptation, and trial.—Smiles

In occupied countries the American soldier commands respect as he goes about his difficult but rewarding task of building a lasting peace.

This world-wide respect for the American uniform was won the hard way—in battle. Now, in peace, it is being maintained by the able, courageous young men of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Their responsibilities are heavy. The success of their mission will largely determine the future of world peace... the future security of every American.

To carry out that mission, they need—and have—your respect. But more than that, they need—and deserve—your wholehearted support. Let us all resolve on this Armistice Day to keep America strong. Only in this manner can the peace of the world be strengthened.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS MADE TOUR OF COUNTY; HOMES VISITED

A group of Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs gathered at the courthouse in Anson at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 27 for a tour of the county.

The group went to Mrs. W. B. Warren's home to see the finished table that had been started at a leader training meeting given by Miss Loretta Allen, Home Demonstration Agent.

The next stop was at Mrs. M. E. Carother's. She is a member of the Blue Bonnet Club and all of the members had brought things they had made to her home for an exhibit. They pinned a tiny blue bonnet on everyone who registered. As Mrs. Carother's home is new, several club members got ideas for new homes they are planning and for remodeling their old homes.

The next stop was at Mrs. H. E. Brown's home. Mrs. Brown is a member of the Hamlin Club. This club has been organized only five months, but it had a very good exhibit. There were such things as pictures, pressing equipment, belts, dresses, chiffon cakes, rugs and bedspreads, leather billfolds and purses and outdoor living room furniture.

Mrs. Dave Walker of the Tuxedo Club was visited next. She has a new home. Plans have been made for the landscaping, and the work will begin soon. The Tuxedo Club also had an exhibit of its work.

Noon found everyone at the Pleasant Valley School house ready for lunch. Everyone took a sandwich but the Pleasant Valley Club furnished coffee and dessert for all. In one room was a display of all the things the club members had done. One very interesting display was a group of home-made toys.

Mrs. J. C. Williams of Avoca was the next hostess. Her club also had a display of its work. An unusual arrangement of marigolds attracted attention.

Mrs. H. Culwell of New Hope Club was visited next. Mrs. Culwell had made two closets for her home. The club members also had an exhibit of their work.

The next stop was at Mrs. Dewey Ramsey's of the Comper Club. Mrs. Ramsey's home is new also. One of the outstanding things about it is her ventilated pantry. The club members had a display of their work too.

Mrs. Henry Euckert of the Goodman Club was visited last. She has a new home. She has a pretty lawn, rose garden and shrubs around the house.

There were about 40 at each house. Some would drop off and others be added. There were 58 at noon.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—it's itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

A sweetheart for a winter start!

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right...

He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade Conoco Nth Motor Oil. For two reasons:

First, because winter-grade Nth is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter... freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery... and on your nerves... because it gives you faster starts.

And second, Nth oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts... saves wear on engine parts... because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight!

So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning...
